

Iskra Likomanova

THE EUROPEAN IN OUR LANGUAGE TODAY

The lexemes in the contemporary Bulgarian language are analyzed, formed with a prefiksoid “evro-“ with a view to their presence in the public (standard) communication, as well as in the colloquial speech. For the public speech borrowing and calques of names is implied, except the proper names and for the non-standard speech – word formation on the productive models of our language is observed. The analysis reveals also the language dynamics in the two varieties of the Bulgarian language – standard and colloquial .