
Hristo Kyuchukov

COHESION IN NARRATIVES IN BULGARIAN MADE BY 5TH-GRADE STUDENTS WITH MOTHER TONGUE TURKISH

This paper presents results from a research of writing in Bulgarian of students in the fifth grade. They are Turkish-speaking students from Bulgaria. The ability of the students to produce cohesive comprehensive narratives in Bulgarian when watching two series of pictures (“Cat story” and “Horse story”) is investigated. Special attention is paid to their ability to use correctly the pronouns, in order to create the cohesion of the text.

Keywords: Bulgarian, narratives, cohesion
