JAN RYCHLÍK AND BULGARIAN HISTORICAL BOHEMISTICS (CZECH STUDIES)

The article presents Bulgarian bohemistics through the biography and works of the Czech historian Jan Rychlík. There are presented the differences between the national revival of the two countries and their implications in the field of humanities, part of which are Czech studies. Special attention is paid to Rychlík's book „History of the Czech Republic”, which main goal is to help Bulgarians to learn more about the peculiarities of the historical development of the Czechs. The book became an important part of Bulgarian bohemistics.
