

---

Radost Železarova

INTERFERENCE IN PUBLISHED TRANSLATIONS FROM CZECH TO BULGARIAN

In the present paper, a specific phenomenon of strong influence of Czech originals on translations to Bulgarian are discussed. The mastering both languages is not a guarantee for an adequate translation. The underestimation of editorial work is also a premise for admission of interference in the process of translation.

Keywords: interference, Czech language, Bulgarian language, maternal language, redaction, translation, translation transformations

---