ON THE ISSUE OF THE LONG (FULL) AND THE SHORT FORMS OF THE DEFINITE ARTICLE IN BULGARIAN

The discussion over the issue of the long (full) and short forms of the definite article in Bulgarian language started in the 1890s and different solutions have been suggested since then. This article is focused on the theoretical and practical aspects of the problem. The author is one of the best experts and analysts of modern Bulgarian grammar. According to him, this rule is artificial and its presence is inconsistent with the grammatical nature of the modern Bulgarian language.
