MELETIJ SMOTRITSKIJ'S GRAMMAR:

THE COPY IN THE LIBRARY OF SOFIA UNIVERSITY (1755)

This article examines one of the emblematic works of Old Slavonic “grammatical art” – the work of the Ukrainian philologist Meletij Smotritskij (1572–1633). The grammar was one of the most widely used study books in the 17th century and went through numerous publications. The paper concentrates on the copy owned by the Sofia University Library (published in 1755) which is in a relatively good condition.
